SOLDIER KILLED.—Thursday night about 11 o'clock a difficulty arose in the grocery store of George Huff, on Green street, two doors below Hancock, between Huff and a young soldier named Frank Hildebrand, from Lancaster county, Pennsylvania. We did not learn the origin of the fray, but Huff struck Hildebrand with his fist, knocking him down. Two or three men were picking him up, when Huff shot him, the ball entering the center of the breast, causing death almost instantly. The soldier was very gently dressed and appeared to be a very sober man. Huff was arrested and is in jail.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—An attempt was made, about 12 o'clock on Thursday night, to break into the dry-goods store of Mr. H. Hirsch, corner of Market and First. They had taken out a window in the back part of the building, and were about to commence business, when they were discovered by a servant girl, who gave the alarm. There were two or three of them, all of whom escaped. The police should keep a sharp look out, as they will most probably try their luck again there or elsewhere.

Masquerade balls and parties are becoming very fashionable in this community at late. The "ladies and gentlemen of color"—American citizens of African descent, were to have given one on Thursday evening in one of the public halls. Extensive preparations were made, masks engaged, dresses made up, and all was promising for a gay time, when the Mayor suddenly put a stop to it, in the shape of a veto.

The collision party given night before last at the Spencer House, in Taylorsville, was one of the most fashionable and delightful affairs ever given in the county. All the beauty and fashion that could be possibly gathered together were present on the occasion. We were not fortunate enough to be present, but we were kindly remembered by Mrs. Karts, of the Spencer, who sent us some delicious cake, for which we hope she will accept our best wishes and thanks.

KILLED.—John Cunningham, a private in Company I, Twenty-eighth Kentucky Regiment, while attempting to slide down a fender on the steamer J. H. Dene, Thursday, accidentally fell over the guard of the boat and broke his neck. He died instantly. He has a widowed mother living in this city. The Coroner held an inquest.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday afternoon a negro carelessly drove the span of horses attached to a wagon into the river at the foot of Bullitt street. The horses and wagon were suddenly carried away by the current, under the bow of the Crescent City. The horses were of course drowned. The negro made his escape. We were unable to learn who owned them.

PERSONAL.—Judge Turston, of this city and Paymaster U. S. A., arrived in this city yesterday from Memphis. The Judge looks "large as life, and twice as natural." He has our thanks for late Memphis papers.

A portion, or perhaps all, of three hundred and fifty sick and wounded soldiers will be transferred to-day from the hospitals in this city to the general hospitals in Cincinnati.

Two or three soldiers fell overboard from the steamer J. H. Dene, Thursday, but were fortunately rescued, after the enjoyment of rather a "ducking."

The Adams Express Company, one of the most important "institutions" in the United States, is doing a tremendous business at present.

A new Government stable is being built on Ninth street beyond Broadway.

The criminal term of the Jefferson Circuit Court closes to-day.

Mr. Zink has our thanks for favors.

SUDDEN DEATH OF JOHN F. HOWARD, ESQ.
We are painfully called upon to announce the sudden death of our old and esteemed fellow-citizen John F. Howard, Esq., which occurred suddenly of pneumonia, at Elizabethtown, yesterday morning. The circumstances connected with his lamented death are as follows: Three weeks ago to-day Mr. Howard left this city on a visit to Nashville, where he had a son who was sick in one of the hospitals there, and who belonged to the Anderson Cavalry. His son was sufficiently recovered from his illness, and Mr. H. started on to return to this city. He complained of being indisposed on his arrival at Elizabethtown, and stopped there with a friend. Night before last he felt somewhat better, when he retired with his friend, who was aroused about three o'clock yesterday morning to find Mr. Howard in a dying condition. He expired in a few minutes afterwards. Mr. Howard has been a most worthy citizen and merchant here for upwards of seventeen years, and no man was more respected and esteemed as such than he. His funeral will take place this afternoon at three o'clock, from Mr. McKee's Church, corner of Fourth and Chestnut streets.

There are now confined in the different hospitals in this city and New Albany, six hundred wounded soldiers who have been received since the battle of Murfreesboro, and whose names have never appeared in the columns of any of the city papers. We are informed that there are a large number of the relatives and friends of the sick and wounded soldiers daily in this city looking after their welfare and comfort. In a great many instances we are assured that persons have gone through the city to Nashville, and even as far as Murfreesboro, their expenses being very liberal, to say nothing of the tedious trip, in search of those of their friends who may be either sick or wounded, when after all their trouble and expense, those for whom they so anxiously looked were in the hospitals in this city or New Albany before they started. Cannot this be remedied in some way?

INQUEST No. 68—Held January 23d, 1863, on board the steamer John H. Dene, on the body of John Cunningham, private in company I, 28th Kentucky volunteer infantry. Verdict—"Came to his death by reason of a fall from the upper deck of the Dene to the lower deck of the Jacob Strader."

INQUEST No. 69—Held Jan. 23d, about two o'clock A. M., at the office of B. F. Fields, Green street, above Hancock, on the body of Frank Hildebrand, private in company F, Ninth Pennsylvania Cavalry. Verdict—"Came to his death, between 11 and 12 o'clock P. M., of January, by a wound through the body, from a ball fired from a pistol in the hands of John Huff."

THEATRE.—One of the largest audiences we have ever seen in the theater was present last night at Miss Thompson's benefit. Her performance of "Victorine," in the first piece, and "Merry in the 'Rough Diamond,'" was all that could be asked. She was valiantly called before the curtain, and a speech being demanded, she made a few most remarks in a very happy style. As announced in the bill, she makes her last appearance this evening in an entirely new play, entitled "Edith and Zeldin," and we have no doubt the house will again be crowded.

We heard it reported on the streets yesterday afternoon, that a letter had been received in this city yesterday, stating that a rebel force of cavalry had taken Fort Donelson, on the Cumberland river. There may be some truth in the report, though we are inclined to the belief that this is not the case.

SCOLLOPS AND SHELL OFFERS.—Messrs. Cawein & Co., at Walker's City Exchange, are in the receipt of scollops—something new in Louisville—and fresh oysters, and all the good things of the season. Read their advertisement.

The Cincinnati Commercial and Gazette are in the habit of copying items from this paper and giving the Journal credit for them. How is that?

Mr. Wright, the efficient messenger of the Adams Express Company, has our thanks for latest eastern and Cincinnati papers.

We learn that about sixty rebel prisoners will be sent to Vicksburg to-day from this city. They will go by rail, via Cairo.

Wm. Harrington, Esq., furnished us with latest Nashville papers, for which we thank him.

What has become of the Detroit and Pittsburgh exchanges?

Another big trip of passengers came in on the Louisville and Nashville railroad yesterday.

About a dozen rebel prisoners were brought in on the Nashville railroad last evening, and incarcerated in the military prison.

There are at present about hundred sick and wounded soldiers in the hospitals at Danville, Ky.

Mrs. Jane Swishelm is to deliver a lecture in Cincinnati shortly.

Thanks to Adams Express Co. for St. Louis papers of yesterday.

Go to McCarrell's for all the best new music.

For list of letters, see fourth page.

"Greenleaf" sends us the following: (For the Louisville Democrat.)

Messrs. Editors.—In yesterday morning's paper appears a reply to "Inquirer," which would be correct if we were a province of Great Britain. But as we are independent of the "Lions," the following reply is correct: Numeration is the process of reading numbers when expressed by figures. There are two methods of numeration; the French and the English. The French method of numeration is that in general use on the continent of Europe and in the United States. Beginning at the right, figures occupying more than three places being separated into as many groups as possible of three figures each, called periods, it gives a billion is equal to a million a thousand times repeated, or a number so great as to exceed the second order of time that would elapse in thirty two years.
